Department: _____

Please collaborate with all faculty members in your department to fill out the rubric below for each course you offer. To do this, you will have to engage faculty in a discussion of which assignments and/or prompts they offer that fulfill these outcomes.

Please list online courses seperately from face-to-face courses.

Use the scale below to indicate the emphasis of each CLO in each course.

0 =This core learning outcome is not addressed in this course.
I=This core learning outcome is introduced.
2 =This core learning outcome is developed.
3 =This core learning outcome is applied as an important skill and/or concept.

Courses in Department	Core Learning Outcomes
	Write in standard English at the college level	Speak in standard English at the college level	Read and comprehend college-level materials	Read and analyze college-level materials	Comprehend mathematical concepts and methods	Engage in qualitative and quantitative reasoning to interpret, analyze, and solve problems	Reason abstractly and think critically	Explain natural processes	Analyze issues using appropriate evidence, employing the principles of the biological, physical, and behavioral sciences	Apply the principles of the social sciences	Compare and contrast the core values and traditions of various cultures within the global environment	Comprehend the nature and value of the fine, literary, and performing arts	Relate fine, literary, and performing arts to human experiences	Recognize the need for information	Locate, evaluate, and effectively synthesize needed information	Utilize computer software and other technologies to enhance college-level learning, communication, and visual literacy	Evaluate ethical principles	Apply ethical principles in professional and personal decision-making