ACADEMIC PROGRAMS AND SERVICES:

Log in to myPGCC from my.pgcc.edu or from www.pgcc.edu to access more information on Academic Programs and Services.

Center for Work-Based Learning

Marlboro Hall, Room 2102

<http://academic.pgcc.edu/cwbl/index.shtml>

301-322-0136

The Center for Work-Based Learning assists students with combining work experience and academic study. Students are placed in jobs or internships where they may apply classroom learning to the real world. Faculty and on-site supervisors monitor the training to assure that it is relevant to the student’s major. College credit is earned for this work-based learning. Work sites are located throughout the Washington, D.C. area as well as in Europe and Africa.

Collegian Centers

The College's Collegian Centers provide a "place to belong" outside of the classroom. They bring students in particular disciplines together for co-curricular activities and opportunities:

- Administration of Justice – for students interested in criminal justice, corrections, forensic science, and paralegal/pre-law
Email: AJCollegianCenter@pgcc.edu 301-322-0753
- Bernard Center – for students interested in business management and accounting
Email: BernardCenter@pgcc.edu 301-322-0554
- Health Sciences Collegian Center – for students admitted to any of the Health Sciences programs
Email: HealthSciencesCollegianCenter@pgcc.edu 301-341-3017
- Humanities – for students interested in art, communication, English, language studies, music, philosophy, and theatre

Hillman Entrepreneurs Program

Marlboro Hall, Room 2051

<http://academic.pgcc.edu/hillman/>

301-322-0700

The Hillman Entrepreneurs Program is an innovative educational initiative tailored to the needs of transfer students who begin their studies at Prince George's Community College and complete their bachelor's degrees at the University of Maryland, College Park. The four-year Hillman Entrepreneurs Program is a scholarship program targeted to students who have an interest in entrepreneurship and an enthusiasm for starting a business venture or leading a company.

Honors Academy/Program

Marlboro Hall, Room 1087

301-322-0433

<http://www.pgcc.edu/prospective/areasofstudy/specialprograms/honorsprogram.aspx>

The Honors Academy admits academically outstanding honors students who are interested in a rigorous program of academic excellence, intellectual development, leadership, and community service. Prince George's Community College's Honors Program promotes students' intellectual growth and enrichment.

International Education Center

Lanham Hall, Room 221

<http://academic.pgcc.edu/internationalcenter/>

301-322-0750

The International Education Center provides academic support and assistance to students who need help with courses or with understanding the American higher education system. The Center brings international and American students together for learning enrichment activities, including a variety of discussion forums that foster awareness and understanding of cultural issues.

Mentoring Program

Marlboro Hall, Room 2038

301-386-7587

Through the Mentoring Program, first-time, full-time students are paired with PGCC faculty, staff, and administrators who serve as mentors. Mentors share their knowledge and expertise to help students enhance their education, advance in their careers, and build supportive networks. The goal of the Mentoring Program is to improve the retention, engagement, and graduation rates of students in a learning-centered environment.

Service Learning

Lanham Hall, Room 225

301-322-0713

The Service Learning Program encourages the development of civic responsibility through students' participation in service projects within the community that support their academic objectives. Through Service Learning, students learn actively by applying principles learned in the classroom while developing critical reflective thinking as well as personal and civic responsibility.
